Vogue's editorial mission

VOGUE

Letter from founding editor

'This fall we celebrate that Vogue NL is officially here to stay. It is our mission to create a Dutch Vogue that is entertaining, friendly, fun and inspiring. A Vogue where fashion and magazine lovers feel inspired, understood and entertained. A Vogue where all Dutch woman feel represented, no matter what colours, genders, ages or religion.

By producing every single page ourselves, in photography and in writing, we were able to make a strong connection with a growing community in the Netherlands.

We could not have succeeded without the support and trust of our friends of the brand. We look forward to the year 2023. We feel that doors are opening up for us, making this Vogue journey even more festive and succesfull.'

Marie Monette

Letter from editor in chief

'I hope we can keep on touching the hearths of our readers with beautiful, personal and diverse stories about love, identity, womanhood and empowerment, to inspire our readers and give them hope, joy and inspiration. Featuring women who lead the way and do so with exquisite style.

In the future we would love to connect more with the community we build this year, and connect even on a deeper level with live events in collaboration with partners and a Vogue Summit, where we can empower and inspire each other.

I see Vogue Netherlands this amazing international platform with beautiful imagery that celebrates culture, fashion, art and beauty and contributes to shape the global conversations that define our societies.'
